

INTERN DIARY – SHANE O’GORMAN MAVERICK MEDIA CREATIVE DEPARTMENT

Shane O’Gorman, our intern for spring semester of 2007, had actually graduated from UW-Eau Claire in December of 2006...the first time we ever had an intern that wasn’t in college or tech at the same time. He worked from early March through late May. He was scheduled at 7 hours per week working Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons writing spots, getting them ready for air, and doing some satellite feed recording.
